

DELAWARE TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE NO. _____

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING DELAWARE TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE 111.3 (J.3)
REGULATING POLITICAL SIGNS

111.3 J. 3. Political Signs.

A.) Political signs shall be defined as temporary signs relating to the election of a person to public office, or a political party, or a matter to be voted upon at an election by the general public, or a limited group thereof. The person, organization, party, or entity responsible for any such sign shall complete and file with Delaware Township a disclosure form, as provided by Delaware Township, which lists the candidate or issues that the signs will support and gives the name, address, telephone number, and email address of such responsible person, party, organization or entity. Political signs shall be exempt from the permit requirements of this Ordinance, provided that no sign shall be displayed more than thirty (30) calendar days prior to an election or for more than seven (7) days following the election for which it is erected. Such signs may not:

- 1.) Exceed twenty-four (24) square feet;
- 2.) Be located closer than ten (10') feet to any road right-of-way;
- 3.) Be removed within seven (7) days after the election to which they apply, whether it is a primary or general election;
- 4.) Be placed on any Delaware Township property, except said political signs may be placed on Delaware Township property one (1) day prior to a general or primary election and same must be removed from the Delaware Township property within one (1) day following the election for which it is erected;
- 5.) No political signs shall be placed when the political signs create a traffic hazard; and
- 6.) No political signs shall exceed two (2) signs per candidate, per property.

B.) Violation of any provision of this section shall be subject to the responsible person, party, organization or entity to the enforcement powers of this ordinance, including, the ordinance under temporary signs which require a bond for the timely removal of any temporary signs. See Ordinance III.J.

ORDAINED AND ENACTED this 24 day of July 2013, by the Board of Supervisors of Delaware Township, Pike County, Pennsylvania.
